The Louisville Democrat is led to remark: "A clean Democratic sweep in Virginia is promised. It looks that way from the Lee dust flying through the air in that State."

JACOB KAUFMAN, of Denver, Col., took a novel method of suiciding. Stripping himself, he shoved his body back and forth between a barbed wire fence until death relieved him of further troubles in this world.

JUDGE VAN LONG has been appointed Chief Justice of New Mexico in the place of Hon. W. B. Fleming, resigned. Judge Long is of Indiana and enjoys the reputation of being one of the leading lawyers of that State.

The Prohibitionists are just now carrying on a vigorous fight in New York against Davenport the Republican nominee for Governor, in that State. He is a manufacturer of wine, and they propose to defeat him if possible.

Ex-SENATOR ROSCOE CONKLING doesn't propose to help his party out in the present campaign in New York. In an interview a few days ago with an Enquirer correspondent, he criticises his party's ticket and platform in that State in a severe manner. He describes the platform as "a mass of nothingness, vapid and monumental vacuity," and alludes to Evans as "the venerable and attenuated icicle." He says Davenport the Republican nominee for Governor is a millionaire and—nothing else. The idea of his taking the stump for such a man, is, he says, preposterous.

SAD SIGHT.

A Son Going to the Grave Which the Father Could Not Follow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—As J. D. Fish was being taken back from court to the Murray Hill hotel by the detectives who have him in charge, a hearse followed by a single carriage passed. The hearse contained the remains of Mr. Fish's youngest and favorite son, who died in New Orleans. The body was being taken through the city to Woodlawn cemetery. Mr. Fish saw his daughter in deep mourning in the carriage. "They are burying my boy," he said, "and I cannot follow them."

The detectives hastily consulted together and then Mr. Purdy, who represents the district attorney's office, told Mr. Fish that though he was not authorized to do so, he would allow him to follow the carriage if he desired. "You are very kind," responded Fish, after a pause, "but I will not embarrass you. You are a young man and a single misstep might mar your life." The party thereupon proceeded to the hotel.

Photographing a Dead Girl's Eyes.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 26.—Roundsmen Church had a photograph taken of Katie Conway's eyes and when the picture is finished it will be placed under a powerful microscope to see if the picture of the man who dealt the death blow can be seen. The detectives have not yet obtained a clue to the brute who murdered Mrs. Conway and her daughter.

The Walkup Case.

EMPORIA, Kan., Oct. 26.—In the trial of Mrs. Walkup, the entire day was taken up by the testimony of various expert physicians called by the defence to establish the fact that the death of Mr. Walkup was caused by poison. All agreed in their testimony that this was the case.

Ice and Frost.

MONTGOMERY, N. Y., Oct. 26.—The second frost of the season has prevailed in this county. The farmers have been fortunate this fall in gathering all their crops without injury from frost. At 7:30 o'clock the mercury stood at 33 degrees, and ice is reported on the low lands.
